

Simple Wisdom for Rich Living Thoughts on Stewardship

Find out how much God has given you and from it take what you need; the remainder is needed by others. Augustine of Hippo, 354-430

Where I was born and where and how I have lived is unimportant. It is what I have done in how I have lived that is important. Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) American evangelist

If I have but enough for myself and family, I am steward only for myself and them; if I have more, I am but a steward of that abundance for others. George Herbert (1593-1633) English poet and Anglican priest

Worship is giving God the best that God has given you. Be careful what you do with the best you have. Whenever you get a blessing from God, give it back to God as a love gift. Take time to meditate before God and offer the blessing back to God in a deliberate act of worship. If you hoard a thing for yourself, it will turn into spiritual dry rot, as the manna did when it was hoarded. God will never let you hold a spiritual thing for yourself; it has to be given back to God that he may make it a blessing to others. Oswald Chambers (1874-1917) Author of My Utmost of His Highest.

How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single minute before starting to improve the world. Anne Frank (1929-1945) Dutch diarist and Holocaust victim

Many men have been capable of doing a wise thing, more a cunning thing, but very few a generous thing.

Alexander Pope (1688-1734) English poet.

The world asks, "What does a man own?" Christ asks, "How does he use it?" Andrew Murray (1828-1917) Reformed missionary to Africa.

Men would not be richer for being miserly; generosity does not make a man poorer. Yiddish proverb

Every man goes to his death bearing in his hands only that which he has given away. Persian proverb

Simple Wisdom for Rich Living Thoughts on Stewardship

Find out how much God has given you and from it take what you need; the remainder is needed by others. Augustine of Hippo, 354-430

Where I was born and where and how I have lived is unimportant. It is what I have done in how I have lived that is important. Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) American evangelist

If I have but enough for myself and family, I am steward only for myself and them; if I have more, I am but a steward of that abundance for others. George Herbert (1593-1633) English poet and Anglican priest

Worship is giving God the best that God has given you. Be careful what you do with the best you have. Whenever you get a blessing from God, give it back to God as a love gift. Take time to meditate before God and offer the blessing back to God in a deliberate act of worship. If you hoard a thing for yourself, it will turn into spiritual dry rot, as the manna did when it was hoarded. God will never let you hold a spiritual thing for yourself; it has to be given back to God that he may make it a blessing to others. Oswald Chambers (1874-1917) Author of My Utmost of His Highest.

How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single minute before starting to improve the world. Anne Frank (1929-1945) Dutch diarist and Holocaust victim

Many men have been capable of doing a wise thing, more a cunning thing, but very few a generous thing.

Alexander Pope (1688-1734) English poet.

The world asks, "What does a man own?" Christ asks, "How does he use it?" Andrew Murray (1828-1917) Reformed missionary to Africa.

Men would not be richer for being miserly; generosity does not make a man poorer. Yiddish proverb

Every man goes to his death bearing in his hands only that which he has given away. Persian proverb

Simple Wisdom for Rich Living Thoughts on Stewardship

Find out how much God has given you and from it take what you need; the remainder is needed by others. Augustine of Hippo, 354-430

Where I was born and where and how I have lived is unimportant. It is what I have done in how I have lived that is important. Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) American evangelist

If I have but enough for myself and family, I am steward only for myself and them; if I have more, I am but a steward of that abundance for others. George Herbert (1593-1633) English poet and Anglican priest

Worship is giving God the best that God has given you. Be careful what you do with the best you have. Whenever you get a blessing from God, give it back to God as a love gift. Take time to meditate before God and offer the blessing back to God in a deliberate act of worship. If you hoard a thing for yourself, it will turn into spiritual dry rot, as the manna did when it was hoarded. God will never let you hold a spiritual thing for yourself; it has to be given back to God that he may make it a blessing to others. Oswald Chambers (1874-1917) Author of My Utmost of His Highest.

How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single minute before starting to improve the world. Anne Frank (1929-1945) Dutch diarist and Holocaust victim

Many men have been capable of doing a wise thing, more a cunning thing, but very few a generous thing.

Alexander Pope (1688-1734) English poet.

The world asks, "What does a man own?" Christ asks, "How does he use it?" Andrew Murray (1828-1917) Reformed missionary to Africa.

Men would not be richer for being miserly; generosity does not make a man poorer. Yiddish proverb

Every man goes to his death bearing in his hands only that which he has given away. Persian proverb

At the end of your life on earth you will be evaluated and rewarded according to how well you handled what God entrusted to you. Rick Warren, Saddleback Church Pastor who gave opening prayer at the 2009 Obama inauguration,

The generous man enriches himself by giving; the miser hoards himself poor. Dutch proverb

It is in giving that we receive. Francis of Assisi (1181 – 1226)

Think of giving not as a duty but as a privilege. John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937); American industrialist and philanthropist

I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitts on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back.

Maya Angelou (1928 –2014) American author and poet

When a man is wrapped up in himself he makes a pretty small package. John Ruskin (1819 – 1900), English author

Too many have dispensed with generosity in order to practice charity. Albert Camus (1913-1960) French philosopher

When I leave this world, I can't take nothing away from here. I'm old and I won't live always – that's why I gave the money to the school and put my affairs in order. I planned it and I am proud of it. I am proud that I worked hard and that my money will help young people who have worked hard to deserve it. I'm proud that I'm leaving something positive in this world. My only regret is that I didn't have more to give. Oseola McCarty (1908-1999) Washerwoman with a sixth grade education who gave, through her will, $150,000 for student scholarships to the University of Southern Mississippi.

Make all you can. Save all you can. Give all you can. John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937); American industrialist and philanthropist

At the end of your life on earth you will be evaluated and rewarded according to how well you handled what God entrusted to you. Rick Warren, Saddleback Church Pastor who gave opening prayer at the 2009 Obama inauguration,

The generous man enriches himself by giving; the miser hoards himself poor. Dutch proverb

It is in giving that we receive. Francis of Assisi (1181 – 1226)

Think of giving not as a duty but as a privilege. John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937); American industrialist and philanthropist

I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitts on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back.

Maya Angelou (1928 –2014) American author and poet

When a man is wrapped up in himself he makes a pretty small package. John Ruskin (1819 – 1900), English author

Too many have dispensed with generosity in order to practice charity. Albert Camus (1913-1960) French philosopher

When I leave this world, I can't take nothing away from here. I'm old and I won't live always – that's why I gave the money to the school and put my affairs in order. I planned it and I am proud of it. I am proud that I worked hard and that my money will help young people who have worked hard to deserve it. I'm proud that I'm leaving something positive in this world. My only regret is that I didn't have more to give. Oseola McCarty (1908-1999) Washerwoman with a sixth grade education who gave, through her will, $150,000 for student scholarships to the University of Southern Mississippi.

Make all you can. Save all you can. Give all you can. John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937); American industrialist and philanthropist

At the end of your life on earth you will be evaluated and rewarded according to how well you handled what God entrusted to you. Rick Warren, Saddleback Church Pastor who gave opening prayer at the 2009 Obama inauguration,

The generous man enriches himself by giving; the miser hoards himself poor. Dutch proverb

It is in giving that we receive. Francis of Assisi (1181 – 1226)

Think of giving not as a duty but as a privilege. John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937); American industrialist and philanthropist

I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitts on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back.

Maya Angelou (1928 –2014) American author and poet

When a man is wrapped up in himself he makes a pretty small package. John Ruskin (1819 – 1900), English author

Too many have dispensed with generosity in order to practice charity. Albert Camus (1913-1960) French philosopher

When I leave this world, I can't take nothing away from here. I'm old and I won't live always – that's why I gave the money to the school and put my affairs in order. I planned it and I am proud of it. I am proud that I worked hard and that my money will help young people who have worked hard to deserve it. I'm proud that I'm leaving something positive in this world. My only regret is that I didn't have more to give. Oseola McCarty (1908-1999) Washerwoman with a sixth grade education who gave, through her will, $150,000 for student scholarships to the University of Southern Mississippi.

Make all you can. Save all you can. Give all you can. John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937); American industrialist and philanthropist